Master's Message

Brethren,

As is well known Brother Corbin Rowe has passed away. For those who attended the service it was well done and a fitting tribute to a well known and loved Brother. The Lodge's condolences go out to all the family and friends of Brother Corbin Rowe he has now taken his rightful place with the Great Architect.

At the last meeting it was decided to cancel the dinner and bingo for the ladies. But I have been informed that there will be tables and chairs so the dinner is back on.

Congratulations to Brother Brian Johnson on standing his proficiency and is now a Brother Master Mason.

I look forward to seeing us continue to grow and bringing in new brothers. I also look forward to continuing our Masonic education and advancement. Many, many brothers have shown interest in learning the work. I encourage this and am glad to see this and will continue to practice and better myself and help those around who want it.

Fraternally,
Brian Fowler, W.M.

Dues are $42.00, please forward to the Lodge Secretary, Glenn Smiley.

Brethren,

Although it was anticipated that we would have problems having our regular dinner at our first of the month meeting, the problem has been solved so we will have BBQ Beef sandwiches for dinner and the ladies are invited and there will be bingo for their entertainment. Word has it that the building has been sold and we are negotiating for a new home. See you at Lodge.

Eddie McGrady, Chairman
